

Source C: Excerpt from “Christmas declaration by men and women of German ancestry,” 1942, by Dorothy Thompson & others, printed in New York Times (among others), Dec 22.

"[W]e Americans of German descent raise our voices in denunciation of the Hitler policy of cold-blooded extermination of the Jews of Europe and against the barbarities committed by the Nazis against all other innocent peoples under their sway. These horrors ... are, in particular, a challenge to those who, like ourselves are descendants of the Germany that once stood in the foremost ranks of civilization. ... [We] utterly repudiate every thought and deed of Hitler and his Nazis ... [and urge Germany] to overthrow a regime which is in the infamy of German history."

Source:

Peretz Elkins, Dov (2008). Jewish Stories from Heaven and Earth: Inspiring Tales to Nourish the Heart. Jewish Lights Publishing. p. 146