

Source D: Image bank: the Zoot Suit Riots

IMAGE 1

Caption: In early June 1943 servicemen on shore leave in Los Angeles began to attack pachuco zoot suiters in the street.

Source: <https://libcom.org/history/zoot-suit-rebellion>

IMAGE 2

Caption: The riots accelerated with a police special officer gunning down a zoot suiter in Azusa. Pachuco youths were arrested for rioting in the Lincoln Heights district of LA.

Source: <https://libcom.org/history/zoot-suit-rebellion>

IMAGE 3

Source: <http://duchessclothier.com/blog/war-politics-suits-the-zoot-suit/>
IMAGE 4

Caption: Soldier, sailors and marines who roamed the street of Los Angeles, June 7, 1943, looking for hoodlums in zoot suits, stopped this streetcar during their search. Crowds jammed downtown streets to watch the service men tear clothing off the zoot suiters they caught. (AP Photo)

Source:

http://www.mercurynews.com/ci_23384220/zoot-suit-riots-latino-culture-california-anniversary

IMAGE 5

Caption: Deputy Sheriff Bartley Brown of East Los Angeles inspects the haircut of prisoner Alex "Largo" Rodriguez, who is wearing an $85.00 zoot suit June 7, 1943. (AP Photo)

Source:

http://www.mercurynews.com/ci_23384220/zoot-suit-riots-latino-culture-california-anniversary